NOTICE 837 OF 2022

PUBLICATION OF DRAFT FINANCIAL MATTERS AMENDMENT BILL, 2022, FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

Notice is hereby given that the draft Financial Matters Amendment Bill, 2022 ("the Bill") is published for public comment. The Bill proposes the following amendments to the mentioned Acts:

- the Associated Institutions Pension Fund Act, 1963 and the Temporary Employees Pension Fund Act, 1979, to amend the definition of "Minister";
- the Military Pension Act, 1976, to provide for the benefits for life partners of members retrospectively;
- the Government Employees Pension Law, 1996, to amalgamate the Associated Institutions Pension Fund (AIPF) into the Government Employees Pension Fund and thereby among others enable the application of the clean-break principle to spouses of members upon divorce;
- the Financial and Fiscal Commission Act, 1997, to omit the provision for the Chief Executive Officer of the Financial and Fiscal Commission to be its Secretary;
- the Land and Agricultural Development Bank Act, 2002, to replace the provision for judicial management with business rescue in terms of the Companies Act, 2008;
- the Auditing Profession Act, 2005, to enable the enforcement committee upon admissions of guilt to refer instances of serious improper conduct to the disciplinary committee for sanctioning; and
- the Auditing Profession Amendment Act, 2021, so as to provide that acts of improper conduct not dealt with before the effective date of that Amendment Act be dealt with in terms of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005, after its amendment by that Amendment Act, with the exception of sanctions.

A copy of the draft Bill and a memorandum on its objects are available on the National Treasury website: www.treasury.gov.za.
