1. Definitions

In these Regulations, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act has that meaning and, unless the context indicates otherwise –

“Act” means the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998), as amended;

“behaviour” means verbal or non-verbal communicative conduct, tone of voice, body language and demeanour, deportment, bearing and etiquette relative to one’s conduct towards others;

“Chairperson” means a councillor elected as the speaker of a municipal council or as the chairperson of a committee established in terms of section 79 or 79A of the Act;

“Code” means the Code of Conduct for Councillors in schedule 7 of the Act;

“Department” means the Department of Cooperative Governance;

“meeting” includes meetings that take place in the chambers of the municipal council, any other venue or virtual platform as indicated in the agenda of the council meeting, and also includes meetings of the committees of the council;

“quarter” means any period from 1 January to 31 March, or from 1 April to 30 June, or from 1 July to 30 September, or from 1 October to 31 December, in a calendar year;

“quorum” means a number above 50% of members of the municipal council;

“Sergeant-at-Arms” means the person responsible to maintain order in the council meetings acting (whether alone or with other designated persons) under the directive of the speaker to perform the actions in terms of the standing orders as assigned to him or her;

“virtual platform” means an information and communications technology related platform used to convene meetings; and

“walkout” is an act of leaving the council meeting or failing to remain in attendance at that meeting, by a councillor or councillors, without the permission of the speaker or before the speaker has adjourned the meeting.

2. Application

These Regulations apply to all councillors and traditional leaders subject to item 17 of the Code.

3. Duty of speaker

The speaker must ensure that each councillor and traditional leader is in receipt of a copy of the Code, standing rules and orders of the municipal council and that councillors and traditional leaders are familiar with such Code, standing rules and orders.

4. Breach of Code

If a councillor is alleged to have breached a provision of the Code, such alleged breach must be investigated in terms of item 16 of the Code.

5. General conduct of councillors

(1) A councillor must –

- (a) perform the functions of office in good faith, honestly and in a transparent manner;

- (b) at all times act in the best interest of the municipality and in such a way that the credibility and integrity of the municipality are not compromised; and
 - (c) during council meetings maintain good and orderly behaviour, including obeying orders from the speaker.
- (2) If a councillor's behaviour is unruly, including when he or she assaults or threatens to assault an official or a fellow councillor, the speaker must order the councillor to leave the meeting and, if the councillor fails to obey the order, request the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove the councillor from the meeting.

6. Voting and attendance at meetings

- (1) The municipal council must convene an ordinary meeting for the transaction of business at least once in every three months.
- (2) A municipality must provide adequate support to ensure that councillors living with disabilities participate effectively in council proceedings.
- (3) A majority of the councillors must be present at a meeting of the council before any matter may be considered and/or voted on.
- (4) In the event of no quorum for a meeting, the meeting must be suspended for no more than 20 minutes or as provided in the rules of order for meetings of the municipal council concerned, and if at the end of the said period there is still no quorum, the Speaker or Chairperson may suspend the meeting for a further 20 minutes or as provided in the rules of order for meetings of the municipal council concerned and thereafter adjourn the meeting to another date, time and/or venue.
- (5) If a councillor or councillors walkout or ordered to leave the meeting in terms of regulation 5(2), and the remainder of the councillors constitute a quorum, the business of the meeting must be proceeded with.
- (6) If the municipal council resolves to establish a special committee in terms of item 16(1)(b) of the Code concerning an alleged walkout, the municipal council must within seven calendar days appoint such a committee to investigate and make a finding.

- (7) The municipal council or a committee may adjourn a meeting to any date or time: Provided that the date or time is within seven days from the date on which the meeting was adjourned and that no business shall be transacted at any resumption of adjourned meeting except such as was set out in the notice for the meeting that was adjourned.
- (8) If a councillor votes in favour of or agrees with a proposed resolution that is before the municipal council or a committee which conflicts with any legislation applicable to local government, the municipality must recover from the councillor any loss or damage it has suffered as a result of such vote or agreement.

7. Prescribed value of gifts received by councillor

- (1) Gifts received by a councillor must be declared in writing to the municipal manager in terms of item 8(1) of the Code where –
 - (a) the value of a gift exceeds R1 000 or a higher amount as may be determined by the Minister from time to time; and
 - (b) the value of gifts received from a single source in any calendar year exceeds the threshold of R1 000 or the amount determined by the Minister in terms paragraph (a).
- (2) A declaration of gifts received by a councillor must –
 - (a) contain a description of the gifts, as the case may be; and
 - (b) indicate the value and source of such gift or gifts, as the case may be.
- (3) Gifts received by a councillor above the prescribed amount must be recorded in a designated council's Gifts Register that must be developed by the municipality, which must include the following –
 - (a) name and address of the person or organisation making the gift;
 - (b) value of the amount received for the gift or all gifts to a value greater than R1 000 or cumulative gifts received from the same person or organisation over a period of twelve-months; and

- (c) the relationship between the councillor receiving the gift and the person or organisation making the gift.
- (4) A councillor receiving the gift must also make the person making the gift aware that their details will be included in council's Gift Register subject to the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act No. 4 of 2013).
- (5) A councillor must ensure that any gift declared on the designated Gifts Register is recorded within ten working days of receipt.
- (6) A councillor must ensure that the details recorded in the Gifts Register are true and correct.
- (7) The municipal council must determine which of the financial interests must be made public having regard to the need for confidentiality and the public interest for disclosure.

8. Councillor in arrears to the municipality for rates and service charges

- (1) A councillor must settle his or her municipal account for rates and service charges in accordance with the credit control policy of the municipality.
- (2) The municipal manager must in writing immediately inform the councillor when the councillor is in arrears to the municipality for rates and service charges for a period that is longer than two months, even if the councillor has been newly elected to the municipal council concerned, and request the councillor to settle the account and any arrears without further delay.
- (3) A councillor who is in arrears to the municipality for rates and service charges may arrange or agree with the municipality in writing to settle his or her municipal account for such rates and service by means of a monthly stop-order payment.
- (4) A councillor who is in arrears to the municipality for rates and service charges for a period longer than three months is in breach of the Code.

9. Reporting

- (1) A municipality must ensure that a register is kept for councillors to declare their interests as provided for in item 8 of the Code, and in accordance with the standing rules and orders of the municipality.
- (2) The speaker must submit bi-annual reports on the compliance to the Code to the MEC responsible for local government in the province within fourteen days of January and July of a calendar year.
- (3) The MEC responsible for local government in the province must submit consolidated quarterly reports on the compliance to the Code to the Minister within 14 days of the commencement of a quarter.
- (4) The reports contemplated in sub-regulations (2) and (3) must be in accordance with a reporting template developed by the Department.

10. Repeal of Regulations

The Local Government: Municipal Systems Regulations published by Government Notice R135 of 2001, in Government Gazette 22056 of 9 February 2001, are hereby repealed.

11. Short title and commencement

These Regulations are called the Code of Conduct for Councillors Regulations, 2022, and take effect on the date of publication hereof.
