SA COUNCIL FOR THE

PROPERTY VALUERS PROFESSION
INVITATION TO THE MEMBERS OF PUBLIC TO NOMINATE PERSONS TO SERVE ON THE 7TH TERM COUNCIL OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN COUNCIL FOR THE PROPERTY VALUERS PROFESSION

The Council hereby invites nominations for new members to serve on the South African Council for the Property Valuers Profession (SACPVP).

The SACPVP is a statutory body established by section 2 of the Property Valuers Profession Act, 2000 (Act no. 47 of 2000). SACPVP provides for the registration of professionals, candidates and specified categories in the property valuation profession; Provides for the regulation of relationship between the profession and the Council for the Built Environment as well as transforming the profession.

Requirements

In terms of section 4(3) of the Property Valuers Profession Act, 2000 (Act 47 of 2000), the SACPVP hereby invites nominations from members of the public within the period specified in the notice from the date of the notice, for its seventh term of office.

Council members of the SACPVP must have demonstrable leadership qualities and be committed to the development and transformation of the built environment professions. They must possess knowledge and/or expertise of the following built environment sector; property or real estate (valuation); economics; statistics; finance; accounting; human resources; law; education and training; regulatory environment or safety and health of the public. Due consideration will be given to race, gender, disability and geographic location in the composition of the Council.

Preference would be given to persons with either legal; finance; corporate governance or human resource experience to contribute to the strategic direction of the South African Council for the Property Valuers Profession in the interest of the built environment and the public whom they represent.

Disqualification

The following persons are not eligible for appointment to the South African Council of the Property Valuers Profession in terms of section 6 of the Property Valuers Profession Act.
